BMLA, THE LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA LAUNCH NEW LOOK

Corona, CA March 11, 2008 BMLA a full service Landscape Architecture firm is proud to announce the re-launch of it's website, located at www.BMLA.net.

BMLA has created an innovative, creative, and comprehensive new site that showcases their 21-year tradition of excellence in landscape architecture. The new site reflects the BMLA philosophy and its continually growing services and goals.

"We are excited about our new home, it's not just another agency site, it reveals who we are, are goals, passion and our mission to be the best agency in Southern California," Says President Baxter Miller.

With interactive menus, exciting visuals, and informative content. The website features a variety of professional photography and graphics. "We have spelled out for the user who we are and why BMLA believes good work makes sense and craftsmanship creates long-term value. "Our designs allow generations to grow," says Miller.

BMLA has served Southern California for 21 years. BMLA specializes in creating landscape architecture that builds lasting community for Institutional developers, local and regional governments, architectural firms, school districts and engineering firms.
